Dear Nazmul Rummy:

In regard to your request for a new license due to a move to different hardware, the signature below from an authorized party at your company ("Licensee Signature") means that (a) you will destroy the current license(s) for your machine(s) and (b) assure that the original license(s) will no longer be used by you or anyone in your organization as of receipt of the new license(s).

Upon solidThinking's receipt of a duly completed and executed copy of this letter agreement, you will receive a new license file for your new machine. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Regards,

Patrick Augustyniak
